WILLIAMS' ADDITION,

South of Creighton avenue, the following streets: Harrison, Webster, Taber and Suttenfield, are 60 feet in width and are "parked," as is customary in many other cities east and west. With the regular six feet walk, nine feet more are taken from the street, fifteen feet on each side, for grass plat and trees. This is called "parking" the street. Which still remains amply wide for carriages and wagons. Where streets are thus "parked" fences are usually considered a superflous expense and the roadway is more easily kept rounded up in good condition for driving.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

A Powder Mill Blown to Atoms and the President of the Company Killed, at El Paso.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 17.—The factory of the Union Powder company, located seven miles northwest of this place, was blown to atoms this morning. A man, named Gulick, was packing about thirty pounds outside of the building, when it exploded, igniting 1,400 pounds of powder inside of the building. S. Carter, of New York, the president of the company, was in the factory at the time. He was mangled terribly and soon died. Mr. Gulick was fatally injured.

SIX MEN KILLED

By a Terrible Explosion of Dynamite at Hancock, Mich.

ISHPEMING, Mich., Nov. 17.—Yesterday morning a terrible explosion shook every building in Hancock at Houghton. People rushed from their houses in a fright, and were reassured only on learning that the Hancock Chemical company's powder works, manufacturers of nitro glycerine, dynamite and other high explosives, had been blown up. The packing house, in which there was thirty-five cases of dynamite, of fifty pounds each, had exploded, and six workmen in the building were killed. The missing are Charles Barner, Wm. Tappe, jr., Thomas Thompson, Wm. King, Wm. Renard and Wm. Crowley.

Search for the bodies proved unavailing, not a particle of human flesh even being discovered. The mixing house, labratory and glycerine storehouse are nearly a total wreck. Joseph Tabelle, foreman of the works, had a narrow escape from death, but was blown flat on the ground and miraculously escaped injury. He was 200 feet from the building. The force of the explosion was terrific. Great damage was done to property in the city. The force was felt thirty miles from the scene.

Tappe and Renard leave families, the other were unmarried. The damage to the works is $6,000 and will delay business three months. The buildings will be rebuilt. Up to 10 o'clock last night not a shred of human flesh has been found, and the probability is there never will be any found. The instantaneous extinction of six human lives and the annihilation of the bodies was complete.

Several large iron acid tanks standing several rods from the packing house were blown six hundred feet into the forest, where they were found twisted out of all shape. The main buildings luckily escaped serious damage.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 17.—A petition was circulated to-day and freely signed by the members of the Unity church, calling a special meeting to take action in relation to Rev. Q. O. Kimball, the pastor who has created contempt by his Sunday sermon by comparing the Chicago anarchists with the Savior. There will be a call made for his resignation. HON. WM. FLEMING.

He is Interviewed on the Water Supply Question and What He Says is Readable.

The question of a water supply is again a public topic and everybody talks on it with, of course, radical differences.

THE SENTINEL reporter went out this morning to get the views of Mr. J. H. Bass and Hon. Wm. Fleming on the public topic. Mr. Bass was out of the city and Mr. Fleming was found at the First National bank.

"THE SENTINEL would like to give to the public your views and the views of Mr. Bass on the water supply question," ventured the newspaper man.

"Mr. Bass has not been home for some days, but is expected during the week. When he returns he may notice the letter of the board of water works trustees to Mayor Muhler," slowly replied the vice president of the bank.

On being urged further Mr. Fleming said: "When the mayor and Messrs. Michael and Read called on Mr. Bass last summer to ask him to close the gates at the Rudisill mill, he did so at once and although it was inconvenient and made the mill owners some expense to shut them then, he did it without complaint. He was surprised to find the water works trustees boasting that by shutting down the gates he had saved them the trouble of doing it for him. In other words they would have made him do so.

"At the interview with Messrs. Muhler, Read and Micheal Mr. Bass said that the dam required some repairs, but he would postpone that to accommodate the city. In the meantime the application for a temporary restraining order was heard, and the trustees all swore that the city had an abundant supply, so he raised his gate, repaired his dam, and placed in it what should have been there long ago—a flume and gate to draw the water off his wheel without being at an expense of $50 every time it became necessary to do so. He knew that in drawing down the pool he would lessen the water supply at the wells, but he had the sworn statement of Hettler, Williams, Kunkle, Meyers and Hedekin that they had then and for all time an abundant supply for all purposes. The owners of the Rudisill mill do not believe, and in this they are sustained by their attorneys, that the city has any right to take water from the Rudisill pool at all. They have secured authority to dig a well on the bank of the river, three feet from the water, and lay a pipe from that to the pumping station, and if any water gathers in the well by percolation, and will flow to the pumping station, all right. But that they are required to keep water above their dam so that it may percolate into this pipe, they deny. If they are right, how can the city, as proposed by Mr. Hedekin in this morning's Gazette, without their consent, pump water from the pool into the supply pipe of the city? If the trustees do this now, they can do it at any time. If the city may condemn the water in the Rudisill pool, which the owners deny, no proceedings as yet have been commenced to do so, and until the supreme court says this may be done, the water works trustees need not expect to draw water from the Rudisill pool without the consent of Messrs. Simons and Bass, except by percolation, and I think they will see that until the trustees treat them as law-abiding citizens should be treated by officers, that the water must get there, if at all, by percolation."

The canal owners have done and will do all that ought to be required of them to furnish the city with pure water and plenty of it, both for supply and power, and every intelligent citizen who will take the trouble to investigate the question fully will conclude, as a majority of the council have done, that our offer to sell the canal, including the control of the wator of the St. Joe river above the Rudisill pool, to the city for $50,000, ought to be accepted. Good day."

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Nov. 17.—Early this morning workmen discovered the nude remains of a young woman in a shallow pool of water just outside of the city. They were identified as Mabel Patterson, alias Nellie Shipley. Yesterday morning she was arraigned before the mayor on the charge of drunkenness and discharged, promising to leave the city. Last night she visited several saloons in company with a stranger. The girl was twenty years of age and lived in Warren, Ohio. The clothing found near the body indicated a struggle, and that after being choked to death. The girl's body had been thrown in a pool of water.

FIRE ON THE LAKE.

A Steamer Burns on Lake Superior, But the Crew Escape.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Nov. 17.—The steamer Arizona, of the Lake Superior Transit line was burned to the waters edge this morning. She left port last night, bound for Portage, carrying a full cargo of merchandise. When out thirty miles a heavy sea was encountered and the boat turned about to come back to Marquette. When she was still five miles out the boat commenced rolling heavily, whereupon a tank of acid began to leak and set the boat afire. Nothing could be done to put out the flames.

There being a good head of steam on the boat she kept on moving. The steamer rounded the breakwater at 4:30 this morning, running close enough to enable the crew to jump off. The Arizona was a freight boat valued at about $100,000. She was on her last trip for the season.

Indiana's Crops.

State Statistician Peelle is comparing figures relating to the crops of the past season. They indicate that the total yield of corn was about 60,000,000, while in 1885 it was 11,700,000 and last year 108,000,000. The average will be about twenty bushels to the acre, and for wheat about fifteen bushels. Irish potatoes are about one-fourth of an average crop, the yield being something like 1,500,000 bushels and the tobacco crop is reduced two-thirds.

I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years; I had lost sense of smell entirely for the last fifteen years, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh.—Mrs. E. E. Grimes. 67 Valley St., Rendril, Perry Co., Ohio.

JUDGE ALLEN ZOLLARS.

He Reviews the Land Problem Before the National Baptist Convention.

The national Baptist convention at Indianapolis is one of great strength. Among the gentlemen who addressed it was Hon. Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne.

The Indianapolis Journal says of his address:

Judge Allen Zollars, trim and rather Presbyterianish in countenance, was next seen on the stage. He wears nose glasses when reading and speaks clearly and distinctly. He began by reviewing briefly the propositions of Henry George and his followers for the reformation of the land system, and then passed to the theory of land holding. He said that ownership of land originated in occupancy, and as the occupant held land year after year, and placed improvements upon it, his right to the use of the land became changed to a right to the land itself. The Germanic tribes recognized no individual titles to land. Ownership with them was national or tribal. From this grew the feudal system with its various modifications. The results have been that the land has accumulated in the hands of the few. In England, with three millions of people, the land is owned by thirty thousand people. The strength of a country is in the number of its land holders. To these we must look for the safety of this country from anarchism and socialism. The largest landed estates in the world are in America, and some of them are held by aliens. This cannot be taken from them, but we can say that after a certain time in the future no alien shall hold lands. In the propositions of Henry George to put title to all land in the government, and to rent it in parcels to owners, there is no practical benefit to accure to any one, and the difficulties in the way of putting any such project in effect are impossible to be overcome. The proposition to put all taxes on lands is equally chemerical. With the growth of christianity better relations between the rich and the poor will exist, and the inequalities between them will be lessened.

The Sentinel has this very different outline of his words:

Judge Allen Zollars, of the supreme court, was the next speaker on the same subject. He said that the great mass of humanity had waged an unequal struggle for the necessities of life for many years. From the time of Plato until the present day there had been people who decried the private ownership in lands. At the present time Henry George and his followers maintained that this was the cause of the labor troubles. They propose that all the land now belonging to private individuals should be taken from them and divided among the people, who would pay rent to the government therefor, but no tax should be imposed. It was a mistake, he said, to say there should be no private ownership in land. Such rights were recognized in Italy and Spain long before the overthrow of the Roman empire. The result of the feudal system in England has been that the land remained in the hands of the few. At present 1,942 people own all the land in Ireland. It was not the private ownership of land that was causing distress, but the ownership by too few. The United States government had wasted and given away enough land to make nine states the size of Indiana, and the worst of it all was that the greater portion of it was in the hands of aliens. This matter must be looked into at once. The speaker reiterated that he saw nothing in George's theories that would be of benefit to the poor. The government could not confiscate land that was in the hands of private individuals at this time. The bribery and corruption attending its appraisement would be stupendous. He thought that when christianity had gained a stronger hold in the civilized world there would be less misery and suffering.

THURSDAY, NOV. 17, 1887.

THE City Council of Syracuse is composed of women. The Marshal did not object when forced to go out and find escorts for the members when the council adjourned, nor find particular fault when sent out to drum up the town for chewing-gum, but he did rebel when three of the members brought their babies with them and ordered him to nurse them. He resigned, and, having told his grievances, no one can be found in Syracuse willing to act as Marshal.

IN Sumter County, Georgia, a gentleman and lady were riding along a country road, going to church in a buggy drawn by a mule. A large piece of blue paper was rolling down the road ahead of them, stirred by a stiff breeze; when about twenty feet from the paper a whirlwind caught it, rattled it around furiously, and, lifting it up, carried it a hundred or more feet in the air, and out of the way. The mule whirled, but turned his head toward the paper, watched it the while, trembling, fell upon his knees, and then turned over on his side and expired.

THERE was an exciting political contest the other day at Lake City, Fla., between the liquor men and the temperance folks, and the former were in a fair way to carry the election, owing largely to the work of a popular young citizen. Four temperance girls determined to capture him, and they did it. One of them asked him to step behind the Court House, that she might tell him a secret, and the others followed with four chairs. In these the conspirators seated themselves so closely around the young man that he could not get out without using force, and, being too gallant to do this, he was kept a prisoner until the polls closed, and the temperance people won the day.

IT has been discovered by a French chemist that it is the foreign-manufactured bottles and not the wine merchants that are dishonest. When soda and potash formed the basis of bottle glass wines improved by keeping, but now the glass is adulterated, and the best of wines are liable to be spoiled. He advises lovers of good wine who do their own bottling to pay high prices for their bottles, as materials that are largely ferruginous are constantly employed in the manufacture of glass for bottles, and upon these constituents the acids in wine act powerfully, and the liquid becomes impregnated with magnesia and what not. Most French bottles, he says, are well worth good wines.

A VIENNA paper relates that when Prince Ferdinand first crossed the frontier of his new country a Bulgarian writer by the name of Nicoloff greeted him with a poem in honor of the event, which so pleased the Prince that he told his Adjutant that he intended to confer a high Bulgarian order on the loyal poet. On the following morning, however, the Adjutant told Prince Ferdinand that Nicoloff was already the possessor of that decoration, whereupon the Prince asked to be informed on what occasion Nicoloff had received the order. Investigation brought to light the fact that Nicoloff had been decorated by Prince Alexander, of Battenberg, for celebrating his entry into Bulgara by the identical hymn which greeted the arrival of Prince Ferdinand.

AN extraordinay appeal case has lately been heard in Madras which puts in evidence the active character of existing superstitions. It seems that one of the accused in the original case gave birth in December last to a male child having four eyes, the face of a monkey, and crooked arms and legs, while it grunted like a pig immediately on its birth. The midwife placed the child under a trough and sat upon it, both she and the mother raising cries of alarm. The male prisoners then came and took the child into a field and killed it by striking it on the head with a club. Their explanation was that the child was an evil spirit, which they were justified by the custom of the country in killing in order to prevent it from doing evil. The Judge acquitted them on the ground of a mistake of fact. This decision was necessarily upset on appeal. The accused believed that unless the child had been killed it would have grown to an immense size and devastated the country, and that they were therefore committing a meritorious action in obviating grave a public calamity.

The Celebrated German Specialist in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, also Surgeon in Charge of the France Medical and Surgical Institute, of Columbus, O., by request of many friends and patients, will make a return visit to Fort Wayne, Ind., Tuesday, and Wednesday November 15 and 16 Consultation and examination free and confiddential at his Parlors at the Robinson House from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Two days only.

When it is known that Dr. Fruth is stopping at a place, crowds gather to consult him, and it is not to be wondered at when it is remembered that in diagnosing a disease he never asks questions, but describes the different diseases better than the sick can themselves. It is a wonderful gift for any one to possess. The doctor's diagnostic powers have created wonder throughout the country.

THE FRANCE MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE.
INCORPORATED 1886. CAPITAL, $300,000.00.
TELEPHONE 862. No. 30 WEST GAY STREET, COLUMBUS, O. TELEPHONE 862.
Established for the Treatment of all forms of CHRONIC DISEASES, and DISEASES of the EYE and EAR. Also, PRIVATE DISEASES.

D. OTHO FRUTH, M. D., the celebrated German Specialist, of New York, Surgeon in Charge.

Dr. FRANCE, of New York, the well known Specialist in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Principal.

DR. FRANCE, of New York, the well known and successful Specialist in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of his large practice in Ohio, has associated himself with D. OTHO FRUTH, M. D., the celebrated German Specialist, of New York, who has resigned his position in the Provident Medical Dispensary to take charge of the France Medical Institute, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific Principles.

A FAIR PROPOSITION.—Intelligent people, the world over, when the reason is appealed to and prejudice is laid aside, can always be relied upon to reach a correct conclusion in any matter that may be presented to them. It is in this way Dr. France, the founder of the France Medical Institute, at No. 30 West Gay street, desires to meet the public, and discuss the manner in which he undertakes to cure chronic diseases. He places his propositions in this wise: Are you accustomed to think and act for yourself? If so, then do not heed the counsel of skeptical and prejudiced friends, or jealous physicians, but listen to what we have to say. You perhaps know nothing of us or our system of treatment, or of the business methods we employ. You may imagine, but you know nothing of our facilities and advantages of perfecting cures in cases beyond the reach or aid of the general practitioner. Knowing nothing, then, of all these advantages, you still know as much as the would-be friend or physician, who never loses an opportunity to traduce and misrepresent us, and prejudice the afflicted against us. We wish to add further that we are responsible and invite you to come and visit our institution; and if you find on investigation that we have mistated or misrepresented in any particular, our institution, our advantages or our success in curing Chronic Diseases, we will gladly bear the expense of your trip. We court honest, sincere investigation, and are glad and anxious to show interested people what we can do and are doing for suffering humanity. Can a proposition be plainer? Can an offer be more fair and business-like? If, therefore, you are afflicted and are seeking relief, come where genuine ability is a ruling feature, where success is our watchword and the alleviation of human suffering our mission.

They adopt the following plan, which is peculiar to the large hospitals, and is not and never has been the practice of country doctors, viz: They carefully note the symptoms of the patient, ascertain the conditions of the internal organs, examine Eye, Ear and Throat by the most recent and approved instruments and methods, all of which they carefully record in their register for future reference. In this way they ascertain the true nature of the disease and its cause. Knowing the disease, they know the changes it produces in the tissues, and, knowing the changes, they check them with specific remedies, and place the patient on the high road to recovery. When sick people consult them they readily tell them whether they can cure or help them, or if they are beyond hope.

The examinations are in accordance with anatomical and physical science, and they will convince the most skeptical. By an examination they will convince any one of the nature and extent of disease, amount of danger to life, and chance of a perfect cure. Believing that science is truth, and "truth is mighty and will prevail" when known, and knowing that disease can be cured, with positive certainty, they invite the afflicted to call and receive advice free and be cured of their diseases.

There is no subject that requires so much study and experience as the treatment and cure of Chronic Diseases. The astounding success and remarkable cures performed by them are due to the long study of the constitution of man, and the cure of diseases by natural remedies. Let those given up by others call for examination. They have successfully treated the following diseases since their arrival in this State; Eye and Ear Diseases, Chronic Diarrhœa, Chronic Inflammation of the Womb, Chronic Inflammation of the Bladder, Painful or Irregular Menstruation, Fever Sores and Ulcers, Incontinence of Urine, Tape Worms, Crooked Limbs and Enlarged Joints, Spinal Curvatures, Club Foot, Hip Joint Diseases, White Swelling, Discharging Abcesses, Sterility or Barrenness, Nervous and General Debility, Prostration and Impotency, Disease of the Kidneys and Bladder, Leucorrhea or Whites, Blotches and Pimples, Skin Diseases, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Dropsy, Cancer, Epileptic Fits, Erysipelas, Gravel, Goitre, Gleet, Gonnorrhœa, Hydrocele, Heart Disease, Liver Disease, Headache, Piles, Hysteria, Syphilis, St. Vitus Dance, Chronic Dysentery, Enlarged Tonsils, Fever and Ague, Fistula in Ano, Hernia or Rupture, Ovarian Tumors, Paralysis or Palsy, Prolapsus Uteri, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Scrofula, Consumption, Chronic Cough, Female Weakness, Spermatorrhœa, Rheumatism, etc.

CURING OF PILES GUARANTEED.—Will give $1,000 for any case of failure. No money required of responsible parties.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DR. FRANCE—After years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. My method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue, again changing to a dark or torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

PRIVATE DISEASES—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. No risks incurred. Correspondence promptly answered, and medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialist, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich and poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method.

To Whom it May Concern: We, the undersigned, do cheerfully and conscientiously recommend Drs. France and Fruth as gentlemen of rare professional ability, ripe in judgment, humane to a fault, considerate in price, and enthusiastic for the relief of their fellow men, and we therefore urge the afflicted to avail themselves of their superior skill.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine, which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination. Persons ruined in health by Unlearned Pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail and express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable Cases Guaranteed. List of questions sent free. Address, with postage,

A Boon

To mankind, said a member of the State Medical Society of Ga., at one of its meetings, "and the prescription ought to be given to the medical fraternity for the benefit of the Profession, for no such combination exists in the Pharmacopea as that of Simmons Liver Regulator." The late THOS. H. POWERS, of Philadelphia, America's greatest chemist, asserted "it was like the discovery of Dover, in his celebrated Dover's Powder, it could not be improved and it was wonderfully strange that the combination had never been made in an officinal form."

L. M. HINTON, M. D., Washington, Ark., says: "No other remedy within my knowledge can fill its place. I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive powers."

Symptoms such as bitter or bad taste in the mouth; pain in the back, often mistaken for Rheumatism; sour stomach; loss of appetite; bowels alternately costive and lax; headache; loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; debility; low spirits; a thick yellow appearance of the skin and eyes; a dry cough often mistaken for Consumption, indicate Liver disease, and if not regulated in time great suffering, wretchedness and death will often ensue.

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, lifeless, and indescribably miserable, both physically and mentally; experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, or of "goneness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity?

If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies—Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue it, if taken according to directions for a reasonable length of time. If not cured, complications multiply and Consumption of the Lungs, Skin Diseases, Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, or other grave maladies are quite liable to set in and, sooner or later, induce a fatal termination.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts powerfully upon the Liver, and through that great blood-purifying organ, cleanses the system of all blood-taints and impurities, from whatever cause arising. It is equally efficacious in acting upon the Kidneys, and other excretory organs, cleansing, strengthening, and healing their diseases. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it promotes digestion and nutrition, thereby building up both flesh and strength. In malarial districts, this wonderful medicine has gained great celebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred diseases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, "White Swellings," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large Treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a Treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength and bodily health will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. From its marvelous power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now world-famed remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "CONSUMPTION CURE," but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottles for $5.00.

CAUGHT BY A BADGER.

The Strange Adventure of a Young Man in Texas Who Nearly Lost His Life.

"Talking about badgers and their biting powers," said a California sportsman, "I knew of a case where one nearly killed a man, and in a mighty curious way. It was down in Texas. A young fellow was visiting a ranch there, and was in the habit of going off hunting for several days at a time, sometimes running down to a town near by. So nothing was thought of it when he didn't show up for three days. Finally a telegram was brought for him concerning some important business, and the ranchmen began to hunt him up. To their surprise they found that he had not been at the town or even been heard of there. Parties were now organized and sent off in various directions where it was thought likely he would go. On the second day the party went into a little gulch, and one of the men raised a cry and pointed ahead. There was the missing man lying flat on the ground, face down.

"They rushed up to him, but he couldn't speak, and when they tried to lift him they found his arm was fast in a burrow. Something had him, and they were not long in finding out what. They went to work and dug down for about two feet and came upon a big badger lying, bracing back, with its teeth fastened right through the boy's hand. It didn't take long to fill the animal with bullets and cut off its head. Even then they had to pry open its mouth with a bowie-knife before they could release him. They packed the boy home and the next day he was able to speak. He was almost dead with thirst. The badger had held him for five days. Another day would have finished him.

"It seems that he had seen a little animal run into the hole, which he took for a young badger, and dropping his rifle he lay down and ran his arm in as far as he could and began to feel around for the young ones, when he was suddenly gripped. At first he pulled and hauled with all his power, then he fainted away, and the arm began to swell so that he could not move, and any attempt to dig away the soil, baked hard, only made matters worse. So there he lay, gradually dying from hunger and thirst, every move making the ferocious animal renew its hold."

If all the instances like this could be collected they would make interesting reading. In the South Pacific a gigantic shell, the tridacna gigas, is found, which weighs about five hundred pounds, and men have been caught in it at low tide and held until drowned. At or near San Diego a Chinaman was caught by the hand by a huge abalone shell and drowned before he was discovered. Birds are often caught on oyster banks at low tide, and a fox was once seen caught by the tail.

In the Mosque of Omar.

The Mosque of Omar is beautiful; its walls are adorned with marbles of delicate colors, and the dome is roofed with tiles of a brilliant blue, and some green and yellow. The effect from the Mount of Olives is of a turquoise dome roofing walls of pearl, says a writer in the Quiver. It stands high; white pavements and tall cypresses around; steps lead down to other courts, once the Court of the Gentiles, the Court of the Great Brazen Laver, etc., and olives, and grass of emerald green, and abundant wild flowers cover the nakedness where Solomon's offerings had enriched the entrance ground between the golden gate and the eastern walls of the temple itself.

Inside the mosque is exquisite. A circle of marble pillars inclose the veritable rough rock top of Mount Moriah and support the inner part of the dome, which is rich in mosaic worthy to be compared with that in Santa Maria Maggiore, in Rome. Portals and partitions, inlaid with tortoise shell, mother-of-pearl, and ivory, divided the little side chapels from the central passageway between them and the sacred rock, the scene of Abraham's awful obedience and of the sacrifice of the Son of God. We saw the opening cut in the rock for the escape of the sacrificed blood, and, descending into the excavation below, we found a similar opening communicating with a duct which discharged into a cesspool be the brook Kedron. We crossed the outer southern court, and, passing the fountain supplied by the water as its grander predecessor on the backs of brazen oxen, we decended beneath the present mosque. El Aksar, close to the Mosque of Omar, into the very same gallery which led to the old temple from the south and up which our Lord walked again and again when He was here. It is now half filled with rubbish and earth, but the ceiling is still so high above that we needed to be reminded that the ground level is far down under the rubble. The pillars in single, solid blocks, the round keystone in the roof and the lintels of long single stones, are witnesses of the glory which has departed. Leaving this gallery we climbed the city walls by the golden gate, and walking south at the angle of the walls, we descended underground into the stables of Solomon. That they may have been utilized by him, and certainly were by the crusaders, the halter rings declare; but it seems that the original intention was to raise the level of the valley, and the thick forest of pillars are chiefly for support.

For cleansing and healing foul and indolent Ulcers, Sores and Abscesses and removing the bad odors arising therefrom, and for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds, Darby Prophylactic Fluid is unequalled.

"I have used Darbys Prophylactic Fluid in hospital and private practice for ten years and know of nothing better for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds foul and indolent ulcers and as a disinfectant."—John F. HEUSTIS, Professor Mobile Med. college.

Bears in the Rockies.

There is among western men much controversy as to the various kinds of bear inhabiting our western Alps, but the number of those who, from personal observation, are capable of forming an opinion is very small. In the first place, for all the sanguinary talk around the stove, there are not a great many men who have made a practice of hunting bear at all. One such incident as that which occurred two years ago in the Big Horn scares a good many. A poor fellow there came on a bear, a small cinnamon, feeding on an elk he had killed. He fired and wounded it; the bear retreated and he followed. Coming up with it, again he fired, when the bear charged him. Trying to reload (he used, I heard, a single-shot Sharp rifle), the extractor came off the empty shell, and, of course, he was defenceless. He evidently drew his knife and used it desperately; for when they found him the bear lay near him, dead, with many knife wounds in it, but it had killed him first. In short, both on account of the danger and by reason of the great difficulty in seeing them, it scarcely pays to hunt bears alone.

There are comparatively few men, I say, whose opinion is worth much, and some of these seem to have an idea that, for the credit of the mountain-land they love, they are bound to people it with as many different species of bear as they can. Now, as a matter of fact, I believe that almost all the bears ranging in the Rocky Mountains occasionally breed together; certainly, brown and black sometimes do. Our party once shot a black bear with a large brown cross, extending from the tail to back of head and down each shoulder. Just as certainly the brown and grizzly on occasions intermarry. My hunter assures me he has shot gray cubs with a brown sow. I may be wrong, but I cannot myself see any difference sufficiently marked to warrant the idea that the cinnamon bear of the Rockies is not the coarser, larger brown bear, the result of some crossing between the grizzly and the brown.

Then, some men insist that among the gray bear there are no less than three distinct varieties—silvertip, roach-back, and grizzly. As I have said before, I cannot say anything about the California grizzly, though I do not think, from skins I have examined, he differs materially from his neighbor of the mountain; but as to these differences of color indicating a distinct variety, I cannot believe it.—Scribner's

For Rickets, Marasmus, and all Wasting Disorders of Children.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites is unequalled. The rapidity with which children gain flesh and strength upon it is very wonderful. "I have used Scott's Emulsion in cases of Rickets and Marasmus of long standing. In every case the improvement was marked"—J. M. Main, M. D., New York.

DR. MANVILLE,

THE EMINENT PHYSICIAN AND SPECIALIST

Lately Arrived from London, England.

Has Opened Office Parlors at 32 East Wayne Street,

The Doctor is a graduate of three different Medical Colleges, both European and American, as his Diplomas will show; and he has been highly honored by other Colleges and Universities as well.

His Reputation is International. He has practiced nearly a quarter of a century. He treats all diseases of the Eye and Ear, all Specific, Nervous, Chronic Diseases and Deformities, of men, women and children, and the Opium and Morphine habit. Dr. Manville diagnoses diseases by an entirely different method from that pursued by ordinary physicians and specialists. He never asks a patient his disease, but by a peculiar method reads and tells every disease, complication and symptom better than the patient can; and that without asking a question. It is

TRULY ASTONISHING!

Even physicians wonder at it and take critical cases to him for a final decision. The great question with them is: How Does He Do It? The internal parts of a patient seem to be as clear and plain to him as the external, but just how he obtains such a marvelous knowledge of his patient's condition, no one seems to understand, or be able to describe. That he does it in every case, no one doubts. Some seem to thing that the Doctor is gifted with supernatural powers; that no ordinary man could give such remarkable descriptions of strangers as he does. Be that as it may, this curious feature of his practice alone, is bringing him thousands of grateful patients; many of whom declare that his wonderful diagnostic skill and power in performing cures is

Positively Miraculous.

The most skeptical are convinced and astonished.

Sufferers from Nervous Debility and Blood Diseases and complaints of either sex, requiring Special Treatment, cured in a few days or weeks, without interfering with their work.

HUNDREDS OF MEN.

are afflicted with Seminal Weakness, Spermatorrhea, and Impotency, brought on by various causes, such as veneral excesses and diseases, occupations requiring a straining and stooping position, and especially the unnatural abuses of the sexual functions, the SOLITARY HABIT so often indulged in youth without knowing the terrible results.

Young man, Stop! Look this matter square in the face; think, consider what you are doing. Waste no time and money with ignorant or unskillful pretenders, who trifle with you month after month, treating SYMPTOMS only, with Bromide of Potassium compounds that impoverish your blood, deadens your nerves; stupefy your mind and relieve nothing—but your pocket book. Such poisonous drugging

MAKES YOU WORSE.

We can prove by hundreds of cases on record that bromide mixtures so often given for fits and lost manhood, seldom, if ever, cure fits, but almost always DESTROY MANHOOD and RUIN the MIND. Bromide of Potassium and Gelseminum are the main remedies used. Given for seminal weakness &c., to control SYMPTOMS while you take them. They never touch the CAUSE or effect a CURE. The unhappy victim goes on from bad to worse, reaching at last the most deplorable and horrible condition of humanity imaginable. A Lost Mind—a helpless idiot or raving maniac; made so by the action of these poisons on the blood and brain, as well as by the disease. In fact, these remedies are worse even than the disease. Let Them Alone.

In all such cases we gurantee a speedy restoration to healthy, strong and vigorous manhood. Microscopical examinations of the urine made in all these cases. We make NO EXPERIMENTS and very few failures. We guarantee all curable cases.

Electric Medication and the NEW METHOD TREATMENT enables us to effect WONDERFUL CURES.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.

Every maid, wife and mother who has dragged an aching back and head through weary years; deserves our utmost sympathy and may depend on getting the most careful, skillful and successful medical treatment that can be given. Twenty years study and practice in diseases of women, both in Europe and America, has convinced me that eight out of ten American women suffer from some of the following complaints peculiar to the sex: Irregularity of the menses, too free, too scant, or painful, leucorrhea, (whites,) vaginitis, metriti, endometritis, ulcerations, displacements, falling of the womb, anteversion, retroversion, interoversion, ante and retroflexions, producing constipation, or produced by it; uterine and ovarian tumors, fibroma and sarcoma cysts, cancers of the womb or its appendages, frequent or scanty urination, with burning, smarting or itching tenderness, soreness, bloating and backache, eruptions of the skin, pimples, blotches, brown spots, yellow spots, red spots, greasy, pasty, waxy, or chlorotic appearances, and discolorations of the skin, with blue or dark circles around the eyes. Nature is true; she disfigures her signs and signals the approach of the grim enemy of life, disease. Look sharply into your mirrors; be not deceived, for these signs and symptoms mean weakness, nervousness, irritability, wakefulness, indigestion, headaches, forgetfulness, partial paralysis, sterrility, melancholly, hysteria, wasting, consumption, catalepsy, St. Vitus dance, fits, derangements, insanity and suicide. Many ladies, especially young ladies, are so timid and excessively modest that they hesitate and put off calling on a physician until they are past curing. Mothers should learn more of their daughter's ailments, banish from their minds a dread of examination, for ladies do not have to tell their complaints to Dr. Manville; no unpleasant questions are asked; no objectionable examinations are made; no painful local treatments are given. In most cases ladies can use our local remedies themselves, where it is needed.

While Dr. Manville was on the Medical Staff of the Woman's Hospital, in New York, he was especially noted for great success in treating all diseases peculiar to women.

For the weak and feeble women, and those not in a condition to rear a family, Dr. Manville's "Germicide and Women's Friend," will prove a blessing indeed. Nearly three thousand ladies have called, or sent for it, and used it successfully. It is the greatest remedy known in Europe or America for "Female Weakness." Call now, before it is TOO LATE.

Extraordinary cases require extraordinary skill and experience.

Health and strength will make you happier and more independent than money. Study your own interests. Delays are dangerous.

Our terms will be made satisfactory to all; charges as moderate as we can in justice to ourselves and patients make them.

Consultation and examination free. Office hours 8 a. m. till 9 p. m. Office parlors at 32 East Wayne street.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Betz took place this afternoon from the St. John's Lutheran church.

The meeting of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, Tuesday voted to extend a call to the Rev. Charles Berry, of Wolverhampton, England, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry Ward Beecher. E. H. Hutchinson dissented because Mr. Berry was not an American. The salary is $10,000.

John Brown, superintendent of the water system of the Wabash railway, says that during all the dry season, the supply on the main line has been adequate for all the purposes of the road. Byron K. Elliott, one of the judges of the Indiana supreme court.

The Morton club gives a reception to night. It is to be a silk stocking affair. Humble democrats and republicans are not expected to ease their tired feet on rich brussels carpets; neither will they gracefully deposit themselves into the soft settees and tete-a-tetes, or feast their unaccustomed eyes on the tapestries and rare paintings that abound in the parlors. These things are reserved alone for the wealthy.

The latest riddle out: Why was my baby's last attack of croup like this paragraph? Because it was very short and ended with that wonderful cure, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The business men of Broadway are circulating a petition asking the council not to grant the street railway company permission to lay a new track on Broadway. They argue to themselves that with a street car line the people of the west end would do all their trading down town, to the disadvantage of the Broadway merchants. The people will be heard later on.

NEWS AS IT FLIES!

Around the Railroads and Busy Centers Caught Up and Dotted Down for the Evening's Perusal.

The Pittsburg pay car arrived in the city to day.

George Bovine, the engineer at the Bass works, is sick at his home with an attack of lung fever.

The Wabash pay car will arrive in the city next Wednesday to pay off their employes at this point.

One of the large globes to the electric in the Pittsburg boiler shops, was light accidentally broken this morning.

E. A. Dolan is now running one of the engines at the Bass works during the sickness of the regular man in charge.

Joseph Bossler, the moulder at the Bass works has returned from Union City, where he attended the marriage of his sister.

W. J. Seinwerth, the southeran passenger agent of the Michigan Central, and a very pleasant gentleman, too, was in the city to-day.

Michael Hausbach, of the Bass blacksmith shops, is off duty to-day, attending the marriage of his two sisters, which occurred this afternoon.

The Nickel Plate is literally lined with cars from Chicago to Bellevue. There were yesterday 945 cars standing on the side tracks between these two points.

J. C. Matsch, the foreman of the cleaning department in the Bass works, came out this morning with a bran new fur cap, and is now ready for cold weather.

To-day is Wabash day at the Y. M. C. A. fair, and to-morrow is Pittsburg day. The boys of these roads will take their dinner at the fair and help the good cause along.

Andy Speidel, of the Jenney electric light works, will soon bid a last farewell to his life of "single blessedness," and wed a charming belle who has her home on Wall street.

At a meeting of representative eastern railroad men, Tuesday, at New York, a committe was appointed to present at a future gathering a general scheme for the heating of cars by steam.

The Bass works are tearing out an old furnace in the moulding rooms and replacing it with a new one. The old furnace has been on duty for twenty years and has surely served its time.

The employes of the Pennsylvania company at this point received their monthly pay to-day and over 2,000 men are jingling the silver and gold shiners in their pockets to-night in this city.

R. G. Thomson, the ticket agent of the Lake Shore road, yesterday received a fulminating cap from Chicago and has it on exhibition at the office of the Robinson house, where it attracts a good deal of attention.

Robert Cran, the foreman of the moulding room in the Bass foundry, has been with the works for twenty-three years. He is now one of the most popular foremen in the works, and is held in high esteem by his employers.

The electric light was shut off for about an hour in the Pittsburg shops, last night, and the men in the different departments were compelled to work by gas light. There was something wrong with the wire leading into the works, and when this was repaired, the electric lighting was resumed.

The electric light will be in full operation to-night at the Pittsburg shops, if the carbon arrive, which is expected to-day. Everything is in readiness except this. When the works are thus lighted up it will be a grand sight, and work can progress as easily and rapidly at night all over the works as it can during the day.

John E. Ross, the pleasant and popular ticket agent of the Pittsburg office, has returned from a visit of several days at his old home, in Lebanon, Ohio, and his face now beams again at the ticket window. Mr. Ross is doing good work for the Pittsburg company at this point, and the interests of the road are being rapidly advanced in his hands.

The pay cars, in making their monthly rounds, are paying out more money than usual. They are now paying for October service, and in that month the train men and the depot men made more extra pay than in any month in the history of the roads, so heavy was traffic. On some of the roads increase of the pay rolls was fully 10 per cent.

Robert F. Douglass, the pleasant assistant ticket agent of the Wabash, is contemplating a trip to his old home in New York state. Robert is unmarried—a might good-looking fellow, by the way—and, as we pencil this item, we wonder—well, we wonder what he is going to New York state for anyhow. He wants to get a vacation of about three weeks, and that looks very suspicious.

The first thing a manufacturer asks, when he is seeking a location, is: "What are your railroad facilities? Can I get my raw material here cheaply and in great abundance, and can I ship my product to every market to the best advantage?" Fort Wayne can answer these questions satisfactorily, and is just the place for the location of any kind of manufacturing establishments.

Bill Smith, the foreman of the hub department in the Olds works, was at New Haven Tuesday night and yesterday attending social festivities and when he returned to work this morning he found his department draped in deep mouring. The boys supposed that he was dead and they wanted to do the right thing to him in the way of appropriate funeral decorations, but Bill turned up all right this morning and the boys were disappointed. They say the girls that went with him to New Haven wrapped him up in their shawls during the homeward drive.

Mr. Geo. E. Small, formerly of Marion township, and now residing in Archer's addition, on St. Mary's avenue, held ticket 4,169, and was presented by Messrs. Sam, Pete and Max, the people's clothiers, with the valuable city lot, corner Spring street and St. Mary's avenue. 12d&wtf

South of Creighton avenue, the following streets: Harrison, Webster, Taber and Suttenfield, are 60 feet in width and are "parked," as is customary in many other cities east and west. With the regular six feet walk, nine feet more are taken from the street, fifteen feet on each side, for grass plat and trees. This is called "parking" the street. Which still remains amply wide for carriages and wagons. Where streets are thus "parked" fences are usually considered a superfluous expense and the roadway is more easily kept rounded up in good condition for driving.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

A Powder Mill Blown to Atoms and the President of the Company Killed, at El Paso.

EL PASO, TEX., NOV. 17.—The factory of the Union Powder company, located seven miles northwest of this place, was blown to atoms this morning. A man, named Gulick, was packing about thirty pounds outside of the building, when it exploded, igniting 1,400 pounds of powder inside of the building. S. Carter, of New York, the president of the company, was in the factory at the time. He was mangled terribly and soon died. Mr. Gulick was fatally injured.

SIX MEN KILLED

By a Terrible Explosion of Dynamite at Hancock, Mich.

ISHPEMING, Mich., Nov. 17.—Yesterday morning a terrible explosion shook every building in Hancock at Houghton. People rushed from their houses in a fright, and were reassured only on learning that the Hancock Chemical company's powder works, manufacturers of nitro glycerine, dynamite and other high explosives, had been blown up. The packing house, in which there was thirty-five cases of dynamite, of fifty pounds each, had exploded, and six workmen in the building were killed. The missing are Charles Barner, Wm. Tappe, jr., Thomas Thompson, Wm. King, Wm. Renard and Wm. Crowley.

Search for the bodies proved unavailing, not a particle of human flesh even being discovered. The mixing house, labratory and glycerine storehouse are nearly a total wreck. Joseph Tabelle, foreman of the works, had a narrow escape from death, but was blown flat on the ground and miraculously escaped injury. He was 200 feet from the building. The force of the explosion was terrific. Great damage was done to property in the city. The force was felt thirty miles from the scene.

Tappe and Renard leave families, the other were unmarried. The damage to the works is $6,000 and will delay business three months. The buildings will be rebuilt. Up to 10 o'clock last night not a shred of human flesh has been found, and the probability is there never will be any found. The instantaneous extinction of six human lives and the annihilation of the bodies was complete.

Several large iron acid tanks standing several rods from the packing house were blown six hundred feet into the forest, where they were found twisted out of all shape. The main buildings luckily escaped serious damage.

HON. WM. FLEMING.

He is Interviewed on the Water Supply Question and What He Says is Readable.

The question of a water supply is again a public topic and everybody talks on it with, of course, radical differences.

THE SENTINEL reporter went out this morning to get the views of Mr. J. H. Bass and Hon. Wm. Fleming on the public topic. Mr. Bass was out of the city and Mr. Fleming was found at the First National bank.

"THE SENTINEL would like to give to the public your views and the views of Mr. Bass on the water supply question," ventured the newspaper man.

"Mr. Bass has not been home for some days, but is expected during the week. When he returns he may notice the letter of the board of water works trustees to Mayor Muhler," slowly replied the vice president of the bank.

On being urged further Mr. Fleming said: "When the mayor and Messrs. Michael and Read called on Mr. Bass last summer to ask him to close the gates at the Rudisill mill, he did so at once and although it was inconvenient and made the mill owners some expense to shut them then, he did it without complaint. He was surprised to find the water works trustees boasting that by shutting down the gates he had saved them the trouble of doing it for him. In other words they would have made him do so.

"At the interview with Messrs. Muhler, Read and Micheal Mr. Bass said that the dam required some repairs, but he would postpone that to accommodate the city. In the meantime the application for a temporary restraining order was heard, and the trustees all swore that the city had an abundant supply, so he raised his gate, repaired his dam, and placed in it what should have been there long ago—a flume and gate to draw the water off his wheel without being at an expense of $50 every time it became necessary to do so. He knew that in drawing down the pool he would lessen the water supply at the wells, but he had the sworn statement of Hettler, Williams, Knuhle, Meyers and Hedekin that they had then and for all time an abundant supply for all purposes. The owners of the Rudisill mill do not believe, and in this they are sustained by their attorneys, that the city has any right to take water from the Rudisill pool at all. They have secured authority to dig a well on the bank of the river, three feet from the water, and lay a pipe from that to the pumping station, and if any water gathers in the well by percolation, and will flow to the pumping station, all right. But that they are required to keep water above their dam so that it may percolate into this pipe, they deny. If they are right, how can the city, as proposed by Mr. Hedekin in this morning's Gazette, without their consent, pump water from the pool into the supply pipe of the city? If the trustees do this now, they can do it at any time. If the city may condemn the water in the Rudisill pool, which the owners deny, no proceedings as yet have been commenced to do so, and until the supreme court says this may be done, the water works trustees need not expect to draw water from the Rudisill pool without the consent of Messrs. Simons and Bass, except by percolation, and I think they will see that until the trustees treat them as lawabiding citizens should be treated by officers, that the water must get there, if at all, by percolation."

The canal owners have done and will do all that ought to be required of them to furnish the city with pure water and plenty of it, both for supply and power, and every intelligent citizen who will take the trouble to investigate the question fully will conclude, as a majority of the council have done, that our offer to sell the canal, including the control of the water of the St. Joe river above the Rudisill pool, to the city for $50,000, ought to be accepted. Good day."

The clothing found near the body indicated a struggle, and that after being choked to death. The girl's body had been thrown in a pool of water.

FIRE ON THE LAKE.

A Steamer Burns on Lake Superior, But the Crew Escape.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Nov. 17.—The steamer Arizona, of the Lake Superior Transit line was burned to the waters edge this morning. She left port last night, bound for Portage, carrying a full cargo of merchandise. When out thirty miles a heavy sea was encountered and the boat turned about to come back to Marquette. When she was still five miles out the boat commenced rolling heavily, whereupon a tank of acid began to leak and set the boat afire. Nothing could be done to put out the flames.

There being a good head of steam on the boat she kept on moving. The steamer rounded the breakwater at 4:30 this morning, running close enough to enable the crew to jump off. The Arizona was a freight boat valued at about $100,000. She was on her last trip for the season.

The fair yesterday was well attended and the booths and side-shows realized a handsome sum. All present seemed to enjoy themselves and no one seemed happier than the hard-working ladies in charge.

It is hoped to raise $3,000 by the fair. The public will have to respond liberally if that figure is reached.

Indiana's Crops.

State Statistician Peelle is comparing figures relating to the crops of the past season. They indicate that the total yield of corn was about 60,000,000, while in 1885 it was 11,700,000 and last year 108,000,000. The average will be about twenty bushels to the acre, and for wheat about fifteen bushels. Irish potatoes are about one-fourth of an average crop, the yield being something like 1,500,000 bushels and the tobacco crop is reduced two-thirds.

JUDGE ALLEN ZOLLARS.

He Reviews the Land Problem Before the National Baptist Convention.

The national Baptist convention at Indianapolis is one of great strength. Among the gentlemen who addressed it was Hon. Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne. The Indianapolis Journal says of his address:

Judge Allen Zollars, trim and rather Presbyterianish in countenance, was next seen on the stage. He wears nose glasses when reading and speaks clearly and distinctly. He began by reviewing briefly the propositions of Henry George and his followers for the reformation of the land system, and then passed to the theory of land holding. He said that ownership of land originated in occupancy, and as the occupant held land year after year, and placed improvements upon it, his right to the use of the land became changed to a right to the land itself. The Germanic tribes recognized no individual titles to land. Ownership with them was national or tribal. From this grew the feudal system with its various modifications. The results have been that the land has accumulated in the hands of the few. In England, with three millions of people, the land is owned by thirty thousand people. The strength of a country is in the number of its land holders. To these we must look for the safety of this country from anarchism and socialism. The largest landed estates in the world are in America, and some of them are held by aliens. This cannot be taken from them, but we can say that after a certain time in the future no alien shall hold lands. In the propositions of Henry George to put title to all land in the government, and to rent it in parcels to owners, there is no practical benefit to accrue to any one, and the difficulties in the way of putting any such project in effect are impossible to be overcome. The proposition to put all taxes on lands is equally chemerical. With the growth of christianity better relations between the rich and the poor will exist, and the inequalities between them will be lessened.

The Sentinel has this very different outline of his words:

Judge Allen Zollars, of the supreme court, was the next speaker on the same subject. He said that the great mass of humanity had waged an unequal struggle for the necessities of life for many years. From the time of Plato until the present day there had been people who decried the private ownership in lands. At the present time Henry George and his followers maintained that this was the cause of the labor troubles. They propose that all the land now belonging to private individuals should be taken from them and divided among the people, who would pay rent to the government therefor, but no tax should be imposed. It was a mistake, he said, to say there should be no private ownership in land. Such rights were recognized in Italy and Spain long before the overthrow of the Roman empire. The result of the feudal system in England has been that the land remained in the hands of the few. At present 1,942 people own all the land in Ireland. It was not the private ownership of land that was causing distress, but the ownership by too few. The United States government had wasted and given away enough land to make nine states the size of Indiana, and the worst of it all was that the greater portion of it was in the hands of aliens. This matter must be looked into at once. The speaker reiterated that he saw nothing in George's theories that would be of benefit to the poor. The government could not confiscate land that was in the hands of private individuals at this time. The bribery and corruption attending its appraisement would be stupendous. He thought that when christianity had gained a stronger hold in the civilized world there would be less misery and suffering.

"Smoke always tells the way the wind blows," that's true. And the happy woman, who was cured of chronic headache by using Salvation Oil, might be excused for telling the good news to the entire neighborhood.

THE City Council of Syracuse is composed of women. The Marshal did not object when forced to go out and find escorts for the members when the council adjourned, nor find particular fault when sent out to drum up the town for chewing-gum, but he did rebel when three of the members brought their babies with them and ordered him to nurse them. He resigned, and, having told his grievances, no one can be found in Syracuse willing to act as Marshal.

IN Sumter County, Georgia, a gentleman and lady were riding along a country road, going to church in a buggy drawn by a mule. A large piece of blue paper was rolling down the road ahead of them, stirred by a still breeze; when about twenty feet from the paper a whirlwind caught it, rattled it around furiously, and, lifting it up, carried it a hundred or more feet in the air, and out of the way. The mule whirled, but turned his head toward the paper, watched it the while, trembling, fell upon his knees, and then turned over on his side and expired.

THERE was an exciting political contest the other day at Lake City, Fla., between the liquor men and the temperance folks, and the former were in a fair way to carry the election, owing largely to the work of a popular young citizen. Four temperance girls determined to capture him, and they did it. One of them asked him to step behind the Court House, that she might tell him a secret, and the others followed with four chairs. In these the conspirators seated themselves so closely around the young man that he could not get out without using force, and, being too gallant to do this, he was kept a prisoner until the polls closed, and the temperance people won the day.

IT has been discovered by a French chemist that it is the foreign-manufactured bottles and not the wine merchants that are dishonest. When soda and potash formed the basis of bottle glass wines improved by keeping, but now the glass is adulterated, and the best of wines are liable to be spoiled. He advises lovers of good wine who do their own bottling to pay high prices for their bottles, as materials that are [illegible] are commonly employed in the manufacture of glass or bottles, and upon these constituents the acids in wine act powerfully and the [illegible] becomes impregnated with magnesia and what not. A [illegible] that when Prince Ferdinand [illegible] the [illegible] a [illegible] who [illegible] greeted him with a poem in honor of the event, was so pleased the Prince that he told his Adjutant that he intended to confer a high Bulgarian order on the local poet. On the following morning, however, the Adjutant told Prince Ferdinand that Nicoloff was already the possessor of that decoration, whereupon the Prince asked to be informed on what occasion Nicoloff had received the order. Investigation brought to light the fact that Nicoloff had been decorated by Prince Alexander, of Battenberg, for celebrating his entry into Bulgaria by the identical hymn which greeted the arrival of Prince Ferdinand.

AN extraordinary appeal case has lately been heard in Madras which puts in evidence the active character of existing superstitions. It seems that one of the accused in the original case gave birth in December last to a male child having four eyes, the face of a monkey, and crooked arms and legs, while it grunted like a pig immediately on its birth. The midwife placed the child under a trough and sat upon it, both she and the mother raising cries of alarm. The male prisoners then came and took the child into a field and killed it by striking it on the head with a club. Their explanation was that the child was an evil spirit, which they were justified by the custom of the country in killing in order to prevent it from doing evil. The Judge acquitted them on the ground of a mistake of fact. This decision was necessarily upset on appeal. The accused believed that unless the child had been killed it would have grown to an immense size and devastated the country, and that they were therefore committing a meritorious action in obviating grave a public calamity.

Consultation and examination free and confidential at his Parlors at the Robinson House from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Two days only.

It is a wonderful gift for any one to possess. The doctor's diagnostic powers have created wonder throughout the country.

THE FRANCE MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE.

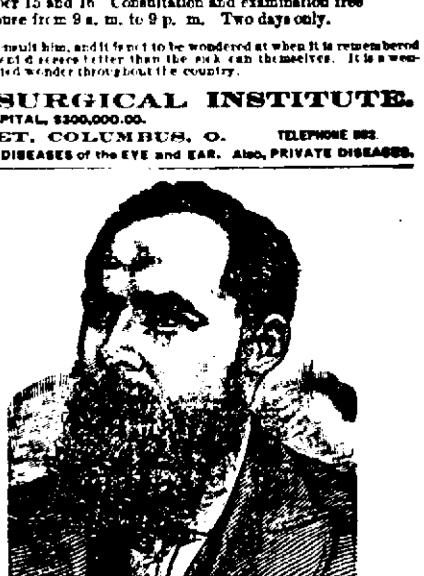

INCORPORATED 1886. CAPITAL, $300,000.00.

TELEPHONE 862. No. 30 WEST GAY STREET, COLUMBUS, O. TELEPHONE 862.

Established for the Treatment of all forms of CHRONIC DISEASES, and DISEASES of the EYE and EAR. Also, PRIVATE DISEASES.

D. OTHO FRUTH, M. D., the celebrated German Specialist, of New York, Surgeon in Charge

Dr. FRANCE, of New York, the well known Specialist in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Principal.

DR. FRANCE, of New York, the well known and successful Specialist in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of his large practice in Ohio, has associated himself with D. OTHO FRUTH, M. D., the celebrated German Specialist, of New York, who has resigned his position in the Provident Medical Dispensary to take charge of the France Medical Institute, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific Principles.

A FAIR PROPOSITION.—Intelligent people, the world over, when the reason is appealed to and prejudice is laid aside, can always be relied upon to reach a correct conclusion in any matter that may be presented to them. It is in this way Dr. France, the founder of the France Medical Institute, at No. 30 West Gay street, desires to meet the public, and discuss the manner in which he undertakes to cure chronic diseases. He places his propositions in this wise: Are you accustomed to think and act for yourself? If so, then do not heed the counsel of skeptical and prejudiced friends, or jealous physicians, but listen to what we have to say. You perhaps know nothing of us or our system of treatment, or of the business methods we employ. You may imagine, but you know nothing of our facilities and advantages of perfecting cures in cases beyond the reach or aid of the general practitioner. Knowing nothing, then, of all these advantages, you still know as much as the would be friend or physician, who never loses an opportunity to traduce and misrepresent us, and prejudice the afflicted against us. We wish to add further that we are responsible and invite you to come and visit our institution; and if you find on investigation that we have misstated or misrepresented in any particular, our institution, our advantages or our success in curing Chronic Diseases, we will gladly bear the expense of your trip. We court honest, sincere investigation, and are glad and anxious to show interested people what we can do and are doing for suffering humanity. Can a proposition be plainer? Can an offer be more fair and business-like? If, therefore, you are afflicted and are seeking relief, come where genuine ability is a ruling feature, where success is our watchword and the alleviation of human suffering our mission.

They adopt the following plan, which is peculiar to the large hospitals, and is not and never has been the practice of country doctors, viz: They carefully note the symptoms of the patient, ascertain the conditions of the internal organs, examine Eye, Ear and Throat by the most recent and approved instruments and methods, all of which they carefully record in their register for future reference. In this way they ascertain the true nature of the disease and its cause. Knowing the disease, they know the changes it produces in the tissues, and, knowing the changes, they check them with specific remedies, and place the patient on the high road to recovery. When sick people consult them they readily tell them whether they can cure or help them, or if they are beyond hope.

The examinations are in accordance with anatomical and physical science, and they will convince the most skeptical. By an examination they will convince any one of the nature and extent of disease, amount of danger to life, and chance of a perfect cure. Believing that science is truth, and "truth is mighty and will prevail" when known, and knowing that disease can be cured, with positive certainty, they invite the afflicted to call and receive advice free and be cured of their diseases.

There is no subject that requires so much study and experience as the treatment and cure of Chronic Diseases. The astounding success and remarkable cures performed by them are due to the long study of the constitution of man, and the cure of diseases by natural remedies. Let those given up by others call for examination. They have successfully treated the following diseases since their arrival in this State: Eye and Ear Diseases, Chronic Diarrhoea, Chronic Inflammation of the Womb, Chronic Inflammation of the Bladder, Painful or Irregular Menstruation, Fever Sores and Ulcers, Incontinence of Urine, Tape Worms, Crooked Limbs and Enlarged Joints, Spinal Curvatures, Club Foot, Hip Joint Diseases, White Swelling, Discharging Abscesses, Sterility or Barrenness, Nervous and General Debility, Prostration and Impotency, Disease of the Kidneys and Bladder, Leucorrhoea or Whites, Blotches and Pimples, Skin Diseases, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Dropsy, Cancer, Epileptic Fits, Erysipelas, Gravel, Goitre, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, Hydrocele, Heart Disease, Liver Disease, Headache, Piles, Hysteria, Syphilis, St Vitus Dance, Chronic Dysentery, Enlarged Tonsils, Fever and Ague, Fistula in Ano, Hernia or Rupture, Ovarian Tumors, Paralysis or Palsy, Prolapsus Uteri, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Scrofula, Consumption, Chronic Cough, Female Weakness, Spermatorrhœa, Rheumatism, etc.

CURING OF PILES GUARANTEED.—Will give $1,000 for any case of failure. No money required of responsible parties.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DR. FRANCE—After years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. My method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue, again changing to a dark or torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

PRIVATE DISEASES—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. No risks incurred. Correspondence promptly answered, and medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialist, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich and poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method.

To Whom it May Concern: We, the undersigned, do cheerfully and conscientiously recommend Drs. France and Fruth as gentlemen of rare professional ability, ripe in judgment, humane to a fault, considerate in price, and enthusiastic for the relief of their fellow men, and we therefore urge the afflicted to avail themselves of their superior skill.

Granville M. Weeks, M. D., L. L. D., President Provident Dispensary, N. Y.; T. Merideth Maxwell, A. M., M. D., N. Y.; Orvis Pomeroy, M. D., N. Y.; V. M. Davis, M. D., N. Y.; W. F. White, A. M., M. D., Toronto, Canada; F. H. Roach, M. D., Chicago, Ill.; Dr. Gardner, Painesville, O.

Also, Farmers' National Bank, Findlay, O.; First National Bank, Fostoria, O.; Second National Bank, Bucyrus, O.; Fourth National Bank, Columbus, O.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine, which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination. Persons ruined in health by Unlearned Pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail and express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable Cases Guaranteed. [illegible] of questions sent free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, No. 30 West Gay Street, Columbus, O.

A Boon

To mankind, said a member of the State Medical Society of Ga., at one of its meetings, "and the prescription ought to be given to the medical fraternity for the benefit of the Profession, for no such combination exists in the Pharmacopœa as that of Simmons Liver Regulator." The late THOS. H. POWERS, of Philadelphia, America's greatest chemist, asserted "it was like the discovery of Dover, in his celebrated Dover's Powder, it could not be improved and it was wonderfully strange that the combination had never been made in an officinal form."

L. M. HINTON, M. D., Washington, Ark., says: "No other remedy within my knowledge can fill its place. I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive powers."

Symptoms such as bitter or bad taste in the mouth; pain in the back, often mistaken for Rheumatism; sour stomach; loss of appetite; bowels alternately costive and lax; headache; loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; debility; low spirits; a thick yellow appearance of the skin and eyes; a dry cough often mistaken for Consumption, indicate Liver disease, and if not regulated in time great suffering, wretchedness and death will often ensue.

Price $1. Sold by all Druggists. Prepared by J. H. ZEILIN & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, lifeless, and indescribably miserable, both physically and mentally; experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, or of "goneness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity?

If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies—Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue it, if taken according to directions for a reasonable length of time. If not cured, complications multiply and Consumption of the Lungs, Skin Diseases, Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, or other grave maladies are quite liable to set in and, sooner or later, induce a fatal termination.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts powerfully upon the Liver, and through that great blood-purifying organ, cleanses the system of all blood-taints and impurities, from whatever cause arising. It is equally efficacious in acting upon the Kidneys, and other excretory organs, cleansing, strengthening, and healing their diseases. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it promotes digestion and nutrition, thereby building up both flesh and strength. In malarial districts, this wonderful medicine has gained great celebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred diseases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, "White Swellings," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Send ten cents in stamps for a large Treatise, with colored plates, on Skin Diseases, or the same amount for a Treatise on Scrofulous Affections.

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

Thoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength and bodily health will be established.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. From its marvelous power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now world-famed remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "CONSUMPTION CURE," but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottles for $5.00.

CAUGHT BY A BADGER.

"Talking about badgers and their biting powers," said a California sportsman, "I knew of a case where one nearly killed a man, and in a mighty curious way. It was down in Texas. A young fellow was visiting a ranch there, and was in the habit of going off hunting for several days at a time, sometimes running down to a town near by. So nothing was thought of it when he didn't show up for three days. Finally a telegram was brought for him concerning some important business, and the ranchmen began to hunt him up. To their surprise they found that he had not been at the town or even been heard of there. Parties were now organized and sent off in various directions where it was thought likely he would go. On the second day the party went into a little gulch, and one of the men raised a cry and pointed ahead. There was the missing man lying flat on the ground, face down.

"They rushed up to him, but he couldn't speak, and when they tried to lift him they found his arm was fast in a burrow. Something had him, and they were not long in finding out what. They went to work and dug down for about two feet and came upon a big badger lying, bracing back, with its teeth fastened right through the boy's hand. It didn't take long to fill the animal with bullets and cut off its head. Even then they had to pry open its mouth with a bowie-knife before they could release him. They packed the boy home and the next day he was able to speak. He was almost dead with thirst. The badger had held him for five days. Another day would have finished him.

"It seems that he had seen a little animal run into the hole, which he took for a young badger, and dropping his rifle he lay down and ran his arm in as far as he could and began to feel around for the young ones, when he was suddenly gripped. At first he pulled and hauled with all his power, then he fainted away, and the arm began to swell so that he could not move, and any attempt to dig away the soil, baked hard, only made matters worse. So there he lay, gradually dying from hunger and thirst, every move making the ferocious animal renew its hold."

If all the instances like this could be collected they would make interesting reading. In the South Pacific a gigantic shell, the tridacna gigas, is found, which weighs about five hundred pounds, and men have been caught in it at low tide and held until drowned. At or near San Diego a Chinaman was caught by the hand by a huge abalone shell and drowned before he was discovered. Birds are often caught on oyster banks at low tide, and a fox was once seen caught by the tail.

In the Mosque of Omar.

The Mosque of Omar is beautiful; its walls are adorned with marbles of delicate colors, and the dome is roofed with tiles of a brilliant blue, and some green and yellow. The effect from the Mount of Olives is of a turquoise dome roofing walls of pearl, says a writer in the Quiver. It stands high; white pavements and tall cypresses around, steps lead down to other courts, once the Court of the Gentiles, the Court of the Great Brazen Laver, etc., and olives, and grass of emerald green, and abundant wild flowers cover the nakedness where Solomon's offerings had enriched the entrance ground between the golden gate and the eastern walls of the temple itself.

Inside the mosque is exquisite. A circle of marble pillars inclose the veritable rough rock top of Mount Moriah and support the inner part of the dome, which is rich in mosaic worthy to be compared with that in Santa Maria Maggiore, in Rome. Portals and partitions, inlaid with tortoise shell, mother-of-pearl, and ivory, divided the little side chapels from the central passageway between them and the sacred rock, the scene of Abraham's awful obedience and of the sacrifice of the Son of God. We saw the opening cut in the rock for the escape of the sacrificed blood, and, descending into the excavation below, we found a similar opening communicating with a duct which discharged into a cesspool be the brook Kedron. We crossed the outer southern court, and, passing the fountain supplied by the water as its grander predecessor on the backs of brazen oxen, we descended beneath the present mosque, El Aksar, close to the Mosque of Omar, into the very same gallery which led to the old temple from the south and up which our Lord walked again and again when He was here. It is now half filled with rubbish and earth, but the ceiling is still so high above that we needed to be reminded that the ground level is far down under the rubble. The pillars in single, solid blocks, the round keystone in the roof and the lintels of long single stones, are witnesses of the glory which has departed. Leaving this gallery we climbed the city walls by the golden gate, and walking south at the angle of the walls, we descended underground into the stables of Solomon. That they may have been utilized by him, and certainly were by the crusaders, the halter rings declare; but it seems that the original intention was to raise the level of the valley, and the thick forest of pillars are chiefly for support.

"I have used Darbys Prophylactic Fluid in hospital and private practice for ten years and know of nothing better for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds foul and indolent ulcers and as a disinfectant."—John F. Heustis, Professor Mobile Med. college.

Bears in the Rockies.

There is among western men much controversy as to the various kinds of bear inhabiting our western Alps, but the number of those who, from personal observation, are capable of forming an opinion is very small. In the first place, for all the sanguinary talk around the stove, there are not a great many men who have made a practice of hunting bear at all. One such incident as that which occurred two years ago in the Big Horn scares a good many. A poor fellow there came on a bear, a small cinnamon, feeding on an elk he had killed. He fired and wounded it; the bear retreated and he followed. Coming up with it, again he fired, when the bear charged him. Trying to reload (he used, I heard, a single-shot Sharp rifle), the extractor came off the empty shell, and, of course, he was defenceless. He evidently drew his knife and used it desperately; for when they found him the bear lay near him, dead, with many knife wounds in it, but it had killed him first. In short, both on account of the danger and by reason of the great difficulty in seeing them, it scarcely pays to hunt bears alone.

There are comparatively few men, I say, whose opinion is worth much, and some of these seem to have an idea that, for the credit of the mountain-land they love, they are bound to people it with as many different species of bear as they can. Now, as a matter of fact, I believe that almost all the bears ranging in the Rocky Mountains occasionally breed together; certainly, brown and black sometimes do. Our party once shot a black bear with a large brown cross, extending from the tail to back of head and down each shoulder. Just as certainly the brown and grizzly on occasions intermarry. My hunter assures me he has shot gray cubs with a brown sow. I may be wrong, but I cannot myself see any difference sufficiently marked to warrant the idea that the cinnamon bear of the Rockies is not the coarser, larger brown bear, the result of some crossing between the grizzly and the brown.

Then, some men insist that among the gray bear there are no less than three distinct varieties—silvertip, roachback, and grizzly. As I have said before, I cannot say anything about the California grizzly, though I do not think, from skins I have examined, he differs materially from his neighbor of the mountain; but as to these differences of color indicating a distinct variety, I cannot believe it.—Scribner's

Lately Arrived from London, England.

Has Opened Office Parlors at 32 East Wayne Street,

The Doctor is a graduate of three different Medical Colleges, both European and American, as his Diplomas will show; and he has been highly honored by other Colleges and Universities as well.

His Reputation is International. He has practiced nearly a quarter of a century. He treats all diseases of the Eye and Ear, all Specific, Nervous, Chronic Diseases and Deformities of men, women and children, and the Opium and Morphine habit. Dr. Manville diagnoses diseases by an entirely different method from that pursued by ordinary physicians and specialists. He never asks a patient his disease, but by a peculiar method reads and tells every disease, complication and symptom better than the patient can; and that without asking a question. It is

TRULY ASTONISHING!

Even physicians wonder at it and take critical cases to him for a final decision. The great question with them is: How Does He Do It? The internal parts of a patient seem to be as clear and plain to him as the external, but just how he obtains such a marvelous knowledge of his patient's condition, no one seems to understand, or be able to describe. That he does it in every case, no one doubts. Some seem to thing that the Doctor is gifted with supernatural powers; that no ordinary man could give such remarkable descriptions of strangers as he does. Be that as it may, this curious feature of his practice alone, is bringing him thousands of grateful patients; many of whom declare that his wonderful diagnostic skill and power in performing cures is

Positively Miraculous

The most skeptical are convinced and astonished.

Sufferers from Nervous Debility and Blood Diseases and complaints of either sex, requiring Special Treatment, cured in a few days or weeks without interfering with their work

are afflicted with Seminal Weakness, Spermatorrhea, and Impotency, brought on by various causes, such as veneral excesses and diseases, occupations requiring a straining and stooping position, and especially the unnatural abuses of the sexual functions, the SOLITARY HABIT so often indulged in youth without knowing the terrible results.

Young man, Stop! Look this matter square in the face; think, consider what you are doing. Waste no time and money with ignorant or unskillful pretenders, who trifle with you month after month, treating SYMPTOMS only, with Bromide of Potassium compounds that impoverish your blood, deadens your nerves; stupefy your mind and relieve nothing—but your pocket book. Such poisonous drugging

MAKES YOU WORSE.

We can prove by hundreds of cases on record that bromide mixtures so often given for fits and lost manhood, seldom, if ever, cure fits, but almost always DESTROY MANHOOD and RUIN the MIND. Bromide of Potassium and Gelseminum are the main remedies used. Given for seminal weakness &c., to control SYMPTOMS while you take them. They never touch the CAUSE or effect a CURE. The unhappy victim goes on from bad to worse, reaching at last the most deplorable and horrible condition of humanity, imaginable. A Lost Mind—a helpless Idiot or raving maniac; made so by the action of these poisons on the blood and brain, as well as by the disease. In fact, these remedies are worse even than the disease. Let Them Alone.

In all such cases we gurantee a speedy restoration to healthy, strong and vigorous manhood. Microscopical examinations of the urine made in all these cases. We make NO EXPERIMENTS and very few failures. We guarantee all curable cases.

Electric Medication and the NEW METHOD TREATMENT enables us to effect WONDERFUL CURES.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.

Every maid, wife and mother who has dragged an aching back and head through weary years; deserves our utmost sympathy and may depend on getting the most careful, skillful and successful medical treatment that can be given. Twenty years study and practice in diseases of women, both in Europe and America, has convinced me that eight out of ten American women suffer from some of the following complaints peculiar to the sex: Irregularity of the menses, too free, too scant, or painful, leucorrhea, (whites,) vaginitis, metritis, endometritis, ulcerations, displacements, falling of the womb, anteversion, retroversion, lateroversion, ante and retroflexions, producing constipation, or produced by it; uterine and ovarian tumors, fibroids and sarcoma cysts, cancers of the womb or its appendages, frequent or scanty urination, with burning, smarting or itching tenderness, soreness, bloating and backache, eruptions of the skin, pimples, blotches, brown spots, yellow spots, red spots, greasy, pasty, waxy, or chlorotic appearances, and discolorations of the skin, with blue or dark circles around the eyes. Nature is true; she displays her signs and signals the approach of the grim enemy of life, disease. Look sharply into your mirrors; be not deceived, for these signs and symptoms mean weakness, nervousness, irritability, wakefulness, indigestion, headaches, forgetfulness, partial paralysis, sterility, melancholy, hysteria, wasting, consumption, catalepsy, St. Vitus dance, fits, derangements, insanity and suicide. Many ladies, especially young ladies, are so timid and excessively modest that they hesitate and put off calling on a physician until they are past curing. Mothers should learn more of their daughters' ailments, banish from their minds a dread of examination, for ladies do not have to tell their complaints to Dr. Manville; no unpleasant questions are asked; no objectionable examinations are made; no painful local treatments are given. In most cases ladies can use our local remedies themselves, where it is needed.

While Dr. Manville was on the Medical Staff of the Woman's Hospital, in New York, he was especially noted for great success in treating all diseases peculiar to women.

For the weak and feeble women, and those not in a condition to rear a family, Dr. Manville's "Germicide and Women's Friend," will prove a blessing indeed. Nearly three thousand ladies have called, or sent for it, and used it successfully. It is the greatest remedy known in Europe or America for "Female Weakness." Call now, before it is TOO LATE.

Extraordinary cases require extraordinary skill and experience.

Health and strength will make you happier and more independent than money. Study your own interests. Delays are dangerous.

Our terms will be made satisfactory to all; charges as moderate as we can in justice to ourselves and patients make them.

Consultation and examination free. Office hours 8 a. m. till 9 p. m. Office parlors at 32 East Wayne street.

NEWS AS IT FLIES!

Around the Railroads and Busy Centers Caught Up and Dotted Down for the Evening's Perusal.

The Pittsburg pay car arrived in the city to day.

George Bovine, the engineer at the Bass works, is sick at his home with an attack of lung fever.

The Wabash pay car will arrive in the city next Wednesday to pay off their employes at this point.

One of the large globes to the electric light in the Pittsburg boiler shops, was accidentally broken this morning.

E. A. Dolan is now running one of the engines at the Bass works during the sickness of the regular man in charge.

Joseph Bosler, the moulder at the Bass works has returned from Union City, where he attended the marriage of his sister.

W. J. Seinwerth, the southern passenger agent of the Michigan Central, and a very pleasant gentleman, too, was in the city to-day.

Michael Hausbach, of the Bass blacksmith shops, is off duty to-day, attending the marriage of his two sisters, which occurred this afternoon.

The Nickel Plate is literally lined with cars from Chicago to Bellevue. There were yesterday 945 cars standing on the side tracks between these two points.

J. C. Matsch, the foreman of the cleaning department in the Bass works, came out this morning with a bran new fur cap, and is now ready for cold weather.

To-day is Wabash day at the Y. M. C. A. fair, and to-morrow is Pittsburg day. The boys of these roads will take their dinner at the fair and help the good cause along.

Andy Speidel, of the Jenney electric light works, will soon bid a last farewell to his life of "single blessedness," and wed a charming belle who has her home on Wall street.

At a meeting of representative eastern railroad men, Tuesday, at New York, a committe was appointed to present at a future gathering a general scheme for the heating of cars by steam.

The Bass works are tearing out an old furnace in the moulding rooms and replacing it with a new one. The old furnace has been on duty for twenty years and has surely served its time.

The employes of the Pennsylvania company at this point received their monthly pay to-day and over 2,000 men are jingling the silver and gold shiners in their pockets to-night in this city.

R. G. Thomson, the ticket agent of the Lake Shore road, yesterday received a fulminating cap from Chicago and has it on exhibition at the office of the Robinson house, where it attracts a good deal of attention.

Robert Cran, the foreman of the moulding room in the Bass foundry, has been with the works for twenty-three years. He is now one of the most popular foremen in the works, and is held in high esteem by his employers.

The electric light was shut off for about an hour in the Pittsburg shops, last night, and the men in the different departments were compelled to work by gas light. There was something wrong with the wire leading into the works, and when this was repaired, the electric lighting was resumed.

The electric light will be in full operation to-night at the Pittsburg shops, if the carbon arrive, which is expected to-day. Everything is in readiness except this. When the works are thus lighted up it will be a grand sight, and work can progress as easily and rapidly at night all over the works as it can during the day.

John E. Ross, the pleasant and popular ticket agent of the Pittsburg office, has returned from a visit of several days at his old home, in Lebanon, Ohio, and his face now beams again at the ticket window. Mr. Ross is doing good work for the Pittsburg company at this point, and the interests of the road are being rapidly advanced in his hands.

The pay cars, in making their monthly rounds, are paying out more money than usual. They are now paying for October service, and in that month the train men and the depot men made more extra pay than in any month in the history of the roads, so heavy was traffic. On some of the roads increase of the pay rolls was fully 10 per cent.

Robert F. Douglass, the pleasant assistant ticket agent of the Wabash, is contemplating a trip to his old home in New York state. Robert is unmarried—a might good-looking fellow, by the way—and, as we pencil this item, we wonder—well, we wonder what he is going to New York state for anyhow. He wants to get a vacation of about three weeks, and that looks very suspicious.

The first thing a manufacturer asks, when he is seeking a location, is: "What are your railroad facilities? Can I get my raw material here cheaply and in great abundance, and can I ship my product to every market to the best advantage?" Fort Wayne can answer these questions satisfactorily, and is just the place for the location of any kind of manufacturing establishments.

Bill Smith, the foreman of the hub department in the Olds works, was at New Haven Tuesday night and yesterday attending social festivities and when he returned to work this morning he found his department draped in deep mourning. They say the girls that went with him to New Haven wrapped him up in their shawls during the homeward drive.
